Chairman of the City School Board Calls Attention to Additional Demands Soon to be Made Upon Body.

The regular monthly meeting of the City School Board was held last night. Chairman Bradshaw and Messrs. Yates, Cox, Lunt, Hellmuth, Howard Perry and the City Superintendent were present.

Letters were read from State Senator R. E. Thorton and Delegate W. A. Smoot, Jr., promising to do all they can to secure sufficient additional appropriations from the state funds to give the teachers a ten per cent. increase in salaries.

The chairman again brought to the attention of the board the urgent need of proper accommodations for the colored children. He also stated that greatly increased facilities would soon be needed to accommodate the children who will soon come to our city with the shipbuilders and workers in other industries.

A special committee was appointed to appeal to the City Council to consider this matter promptly and provide additional buildings for public school purposes.

The average number of bills were ordered to be paid.

The superintendent read his report for the month of February, and after transacting the usual monthly business the board adjourned.

TARRED AND FEATHERED.

Wealthy Contractor Near Pittsburg Punished by Neighbors.

Pittsburg, March 8.—John Przymusalla, contractor, of West Park, Stowe Township, was tarred and feathered Wednesday night by a mob of more than 100 residents of McKees Rocks and Stowe Township, following unpatriotic utterances and his belief in German righteousness.

Przymusalla is a well-to-do builder and has lived in West Park for nearly fifteen years. Wednesday night he was decoyed into an automobile on the pretense of being taken to inspect a building site. As soon as he was seated the driver put on full speed, and despite Przymusalla's protests, he was taken out into the country. When the automobile was finally stopped, he was surrounded by the posse, lectured on the propriety of living in America, prospering here and at the same time sympathizing with her enemies.

After confessing that he made unpatriotic utterances, he was stripped and the tar and feathers applied.

The efficacy of the treatment resulted in the victim making a brief patriotic address as soon as released.

SLAIN, REFUSING TO TREAT.

West Scranton Barroom Etiquette Lightly Turns to Murder.

Scranton, Pa., March 8.—William Griffith sacrificed his life rather than "stand treat" for a crowd of men in a West Scranton barroom, according to an investigation of the circumstances surrounding the man's death made by the police. Griffith, who was 56 years old, died in the State Hospital.

Griffith, the police say, entered the saloon of Charles Zelinkoski, and was assaulted when he refused to buy drinks for the men in there. Zelinkoski is under arrest, charged with murder.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY

Twelve Persons Charged With Violating the Prohibition Law Will Be Arraigned Next Week.

Twelve persons have been arrested and held for the action of the grand jury by the Police Court since the February term of the Corporation Court. As the regular grand jury term of the court will be in June, Judge Barley has directed the summoning of a special jury to meet next Wednesday.

Eight persons have been sent on during the present week for alleged violations of the prohibition law. James Carlton, colored, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of violating the prohibition law.

Inspector Payne took him from a Southern Railway train, believing two suit cases filled with liquor belonged to him. This morning in the Police Court Carlton alleged that he was on his way to North Carolina to see his mother, who was critically ill at Waynesville. He denied he was the owner of the baggage or had in any way been engaged in transporting liquor into the State. There was nothing adduced to controvert his statements, and he was released.

There was one other case before the court—that of a white man, who had been arrested for being drunk in the street. He was fined $5.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

How Some of the Red Cross Kiddies are Doing "Their Bit."

Lieut. H. A. Field, U. S. N. R. F., Field Director of the Southern Division, in service at Charleston, S. C., reports a very interesting contribution from a little girl, of Charleston, S. C., in the nature of a muffler, to which she attached the following note:

"This muffler was knitted by a little Charleston, S. C., girl, 11 years old, who has only one hand. The muffler isn't perfect, as perfection in knitting is known, but it is a perfect monument of perseverance and tenacity. It took her three weeks to knit it, but she wanted to do her 'bit' for the boys who are fighting for us all."

It is such beautiful expressions of interest as this one which makes us all feel hopelessly ashamed of the meager efforts which we sometimes make, misnamed our "bit." Surely our motto should be in the future: "Not our bit, but," as in the case of this little girl, "our best."

All the pupils of the schools of Alexandria have been enrolled in the Junior Auxiliary of the Red Cross. These children under the supervision of Miss Katherine Stewart, chairman, are being taught to do practically the same work as the adults.

The importance of the war relief work which school children are able to do is shown by the recent shipment of 2,663 woolen garments for Italian refugee children made by the public school children in Buffalo.

These articles were made from the old garments of grown-ups without a penny cost to the schools. The garments were first sterilized by the Health Department. They were then cut down and made over by the children. In the boy's schools in Buffalo hundreds of old shoes have been repaired for the poor children of the city.

The work being done by school children is worthy of mention. In ten of the grade schools the children in grades No. 1 and No. 2 are snipping for ambulance pillows and making light weight books from old magazines for hospital use. Wash-cloths and squares for bed covers are among the things which are being made by the third, fourth and fifth grades. In the sixth, seventh and eighth grades children are knitting and making surgical dressings.

Armstrong, the latter having filed a cross bill.

A quiet but interesting wedding was celebrated at old Christ church in this city yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, when Miss Mildred Lee Studds became the bride of Lieut. Albert G. Clark, of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, assisted by the Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ church. The bride is well known in Alexandria and vicinity where she has near relatives and friends. She is the daughter of Mr. William Studds, of Del Ray, formerly a resident of Fairfax county, near the Theological Seminary. Her mother was Miss Mary Finks, of Fairfax county. Lieutenant and Mrs. Clark received the hearty congratulations and best wishes of their friends at the conclusion of the ceremony and left for North Carolina last night where he is on military duty at one of the camps in that state.

AURORA BOREALIS.

Brilliant Display of Phenomena of Frigid Zone Witnessed Last Night.

The Northern Lights were seen in an unusual burst of glory in Alexandria and vicinity last night. It was the most wonderful display in probably twenty years.

Stretching across about thirty degrees of the northern zenith, they flared in bursts of red and purple and streaks of gold and white. They glowed for three or four minutes at times and again showed in fitful flashes of only seconds duration.

The aurora borealis is most active in October and March and during a series of sun-spots. There have been an unusually large number of sun-spots recently, which accounts for the unusual display.

YOUNG HUSBAND DIES.

Bloodhounds Fail to Follow Trail of Murderer of Winston-Salem Man and Wife.

Winston-Salem, N. C., March 8.—Completing the double murder perpetrated by an unknown man near this city yesterday afternoon, Harvey Hester, aged twenty-four, died early Wednesday morning as the result of a pistol shot through the head when he looked into his window, where his young wife was dead as the result of three pistol shots through her body.

Officers are holding two men—a negro and a white—on suspicion, and are still working diligently on every possible clue.

KILL BONE DRY BILL.

Maryland House Voted Measure out of Committee and Tabled it.

Annapolis, Md., March 8.—The house of delegates yesterday afternoon killed the Phoebus statewide bone-dry prohibition bill by a vote of fifty-eight to thirty-one. The wets, led by Delegate Fisher, of Prince Georges county, forced the bill out of the temperance committee by petition which was signed by fifteen members. Immediately the chairman of the temperance committee moved to recommit the bill, but a motion to table took precedence and was adopted by the large majority of twenty-seven.

He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters.

TEXAS TAKES DRY STEP.

Lower House Adopts State-Wide Prohibition Measure Preventing Sale or Manufacture.

Austin, Tex., March 8.—Texas took a step nearer State-wide Prohibition yesterday, when the lower house of the Legislature passed finally the bill prohibiting the sale or manufacture of spirituous or malt liquors containing intoxicants. Shipment into the State of liquors, except for scientific, mechanical or sacramental purposes, is prohibited. The bill now goes to the Senate, where favorable action is predicted by prohibition leaders.

Another of the Governor's war measures, the bill making it a penitentiary offense to sell liquors to soldiers and sailors, was passed finally in the Senate. It already has passed in the House.

WEST TAX BILL.

Described as an Iniquitous Attempt to Annihilate Segregation System.

Characterizing the West 50-50 tax bill as an iniquitous attempt to annihilate the segregation system in Virginia, the House of Delegates yesterday killed it, 64 to 25, when on motion of John W. Stephenson, the bill and all its proposed amendments were dismissed from the calendar. Earlier in the day the same body had rejected Lindsay Gordon's resolution designed to permit popular election of judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals by a vote of 53 to 39. Thirty-five Senate bills, uncontested and mostly of a purely local nature, were passed en bloc by the House.

Hospital Corps Goes to Camp.

Charlottesville, Va., March 7.—Base Hospital No. 41, of the University of Virginia, under command of Major William H. Goodwin, has completely mobilized its enlisted personnel and has left for Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., where it will enter training along its special lines of work before sailing for France. Major Goodwin has orders to increase the personnel from 150 to 200 men, provided he does not recruit from within the draft age. He is officially informed that upon arrival in France, Base Hospital No. 41 will be enlarged to 1,000 beds, doubling its present capacity.

The complete equipment of the hospital is now stored at an Atlantic port ready for immediate sailing. Much of this equipment was donated by the Elks from their $1,000,000 war fund, over $60,000 having been expended for this purpose. There are 100 nurses in the unit, many of whom are now stationed at various cantonments receiving preliminary training.

Wheatless Pledge From Five Thousand People.

Employees of the Stetson Hat Factory, in Philadelphia, numbering several thousands, voted unanimously the other day to abstain for the duration of the war from wheat bread at meals eaten in the factory restaurant. This action was taken at a noon meeting in the factory auditorium, attended by 5,000 employees, to whom Jay Cooke food administrator for Philadelphia, explained the need for conservation. J. Howard Cummings, president of the company, asked his employees what they wished to do in the matter, and the decision to eliminate wheat from factory meals followed a resolution offered by an employee, which was carried with a rising vote and a great cheer. The factory restaurant serves 10,000 meals weekly.

ALL TO "SPEAK, ACT AND SERVE TOGETHER"

Residents of Alexandria Uniting to Further Interests of the City—Luncheon Given Today by Vice President B. W. Morse, of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation is Attended by Representatives of Practically all the Various Lines of Business in Town.

Alexandria is literally following the call to the nation made by President Wilson when at the beginning of the war he said: "The supreme test of the nation has come—we must all speak, act, and serve together."

The people of Alexandria are preparing to "speak, act and serve together" in the support of the government and in the development of the city.

This statement was made today at the second of the "Greater Alexandria" luncheons held at the Westminster building. A number larger even than the one of Tuesday was present and the enthusiasm was if anything greater for the Chamber of Commerce reorganization campaign.

B. W. Morse, vice president and general manager of the Virginia shipbuilding Corporation, was chairman and host to the gathering, and he took occasion to tell those present concerning the needs of Alexandria from an industrial standpoint, and how the city could co-operate to make manufacturing conditions satisfactory. Mr. Morse and his assistants, many of them experts in their particular lines, have gone deeply into every condition of manufacturing in this community, and leaders in the Chamber of Commerce movement were anxious to have Mr. Morse tell of these conditions first hand. The meeting lasted too long for a report of the addresses, and will be reported in tomorrow's Gazette.

It was announced today at the Chamber of Commerce that the "Platform of Activities" of the proposed reorganized Chamber of Commerce was now in the hands of the printer and would be ready for distribution by Monday. This platform goes into the immediate needs to make the new organization effective, and gives a thorough explanation of the bureau plan of organization and the members' council.

The canvass for members has been held back by the campaign committee so that the business men of the city might get a thorough knowledge of the plan of organization before the campaign was held. Experience in other cities has shown that foundations for future work can be more effectively laid if this plan is followed. President Payne, Campaign Chairman Carroll Pierce, Secretary Preston and other campaign leaders have had scores of volunteer offers to take memberships, and many such offers have come by mail, but all have been told that the campaign for members will not start until next Tuesday morning at which time a great whirlwind campaign will be inaugurated. There will be no memberships accepted Monday night at the "Greater Alexandria" meeting.

The campaign is to be conducted and carried out in a business like and systematic way and as each individual, firm, and corporation had been rated to take one or more memberships, it will be necessary to give each committee certain "prospects" with the ratings so that each prospect will be asked to pledge the proper support to this great community-building undertaking.

The meeting Monday night at the Elks' club promises to be of almost historic importance. It will, in the opinion of campaign leaders, mark the dawn of a new era of progress in Alexandria. A wonderful address from Dr. D. W. Daniel is expected, and there will be an interesting program of local speakers.

Here are some press comments on Dr. Daniel's address on "The Forces that Build Communities:"

Dr. D. W. Daniel of South Carolina, on the "Forces that Build Communities" proved himself one of the greatest platform men that ever came to Savannah. He kept his audience in an uproar of laughter and pleasantness with his keen wit with which he drove home his points throughout his talk. When he quit talking he was applauded until he had to rise a third time to quell the crowd. Then the applause was prolonged."—Savannah Press. (Ga.)

Dr. D. W. Daniel of Clemson College, S. C., who was the chief speaker at the great Raleigh dinner on Tuesday night deserves the thanks of the city. His subject prescribed his speech. What he had to say was understood to be confined to what his audience had gathered to hear. The point is that he said it. Said it with eloquence, a spirit, a wit and a humor that held the tables in sheer enjoyment. Under the influence of such a speech, co-operation was not an effort but a necessity. The speaker caught the spirit of the evening and led his audience as though waving a flag. Dr. Daniel showed the people of Raleigh that oratory is not a lost art."—Editorial in Raleigh (N. C.) News.

"There has been no greater enjoyment at any banquet in Raleigh than that given by Dr. D. W. Daniel of Clemson College, S. C., is the address he delivered at the "Greater Raleigh" dinner of the Chamber of Commerce delivered at the "Greater Raleigh." And Mr. Daniel was the star feature of the delightful dinner. Dr. Daniel captivated Raleigh with his address. It was a gem in advice, philosophy, and wit. It will long be remembered here as one of the very best ever heard in this city. Raleigh is glad to have become acquainted with the distinguished educator of Clemson College."—From Editorial, Raleigh News and Observer.

THE BLACK HORSE AND ITS RIDER.

According to an American officer now on a visit to relatives and friends in another city, the present conflict is to continue at least ten years longer. The pinch of war is becoming more alarming every day in Europe, neutral countries suffering as well as the belligerents, although in America it has not been necessary, so far, to tighten belts. But should the present fearful conflict continue another decade there is no telling the misery which we, too, will be compelled to pass through.

In our headlines we use the words "The black horse and its rider," by which we refer to the allegorical picture of famine as given in the Apocalyse.

The Lamb is opening the seals. The black horse is preceded by a red horse, the rider of which is given a sword and commanded to take peace from the earth. This terrible steed is followed by another—black—and the rider is holding a pair of scales in his hand. While this awful picture is on the screen a voice is heard in the midst of the four living creatures saying "A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny."

The fact that these measures were the rations allowed soldiers in the army of Xerxes, as well as to Roman soldiers, is significant. Are we to understand that "the time is coming, and now is when all the produce of the earth will be required to feed soldiers? It looks like it in some countries at the present time.

Denmark is facing starvation through the German submarine blockade and the allies embargo, it is declared by Peter De Treschow, Danish consul general at Chicago, when he arrived in this country yesterday.

"Our people actually are starving," he said. "This applies not only to the poor, but to persons who in ordinary times would be regarded as well to do, people who even now have plenty of money. Rich and poor alike have to limit their wants to the barest needs. The price of food throughout the country is fast getting beyond the reach of most persons. Denmark is fighting heart and soul to keep out of the war."

Rioting yesterday in Christiania, in consequence of which many arrests were made, is reported in dispatches from Copenhagen. Crowds stormed butcher shops, and there were demonstrations before the parliament building.

WHAT CONGRESSMEN ARE DOING.

The Loudoun Times says that the present members of Congress from Virginia are thoroughly alive to the requirements of their farmer constituents, and ever have them in their minds, is clearly shown by the following bills that have been introduced in their behalf and the work that they have done to accomplish results that will be beneficial to their interests.

The Times continuing says through the strenuous efforts of the Hon. C. C. Carlin of Virginia a $34,000,000 shipbuilding plant, employing thousands of men, has been established at Alexandria, which will mean much to the farmers of Loudoun, Fairfax, and other adjourning counties, for it will shortly give them a nearby market, by direct route, for much farm produce and will encourage the small farmer to go more extensively into trucking, fowl raising and dairying, which are all good paying divisions of farming and within the successful scops of the small farmers' operations. All of our Virginia delegation in Congress have, so far as we can ascertain, faithfully worked for and backed every bill introduced that would in any way aid the farmer and relieve food conditions.

MARTIN TO THE RESCUE.

The Charlottesville Progress says nothing could be more timely just now than the move which Senator Thos. S. Martin, of this State, is reported from Washington to be making to have the military authorities come to some definite decision as to the classification and exemption of drafted men engaged in agricultural pursuits. With his accustomed promptness and vigor, Senator Martin is endeavoring to bring the different government departments together in a definite and workable agreement or ruling as regards these very necessary men in the country at this critical time, and those who know his ability and determination when he once sets about a public question which he deems of importance, may take hope that at last some sort of clear and just rule will be adopted at Washington, whereby the people involved may get some relief in the coming crop year.

Some such distinct and plain exemption or classification as Senator Martin has planned for is seriously needed, and it is to be hoped that his efforts will be crowned with success without delay.

These make up the usual Dutch lunch—but what will you serve to drink?

For years the host and hostess have been asking themselves that same question—especially whenever the occasion happens to be one of those cozy little after-theatre or "in-between-times" parties. Now, there is a ready answer—

Bevo
A BEVERAGE

A good Mixer

This distinctively new creation in soft drinks is sparkling—snappy—delicious. It is healthful with the wholesomeness of the choicest cereals—appetizing with the bouquet and agreeable bitter tang which only choice hops can impart. It is sure to "hit the spot"—sure to encounter no prejudices.

THE $1,000,000 PHOTOPLAY

"A Daughter of the Gods"

With

ANNETTE KELLERMAN

Richmond Theatre, Tonight and Tomorrow March 8 and 9th

Greatest thing ever attempted in motion pictures, dazzling the eyes, astounding the mind, amazing the imagination.

Some Facts About This Wonderful Picture

The actual cost of the picture: just in excess of $1,100,000. Total number of persons appearing in the picture: 21,218. Largest number used in a single scene: 19,744. Number of children in the gnome city scenes: 1,200. More than two hundred mermaids. Three hundred dancing girls and women of the Sultan's harem. Number of feet of film taken: 223,000. Number of feet shown to you: 10,000 feet in ten reels. Seven camera men photographed the picture, as many as four photographing the same scene simulataneously from different angles. A Moorish city built at a cost of $350,000, and destroyed to make one of the "big scenes" of the picture. An entire Caribbean island and all its population utilized by William Fox to assist his actor principals in the making of the picture. Time required to build the tropical city and equip it: three months. Then eights months more of work in making the picture. A special municipality created and governed by William Fox for his thousands of employees. Special refrigerating and laboratory plants built and maintained for the development of the film. There was no loss of human life in the making of even the most hazardous scenes.

This is undoubtedly the most wonderful production that has ever been seen in this city. It has been shown to record breaking crowds in New York, Pittsburg, Chicago and the Belasco Theatre in Washington at prices ranging from 50c to $2.00.

Prices of Admission in this city will be Only 15 and 25c

Don't fail to see the greatest picture ever produced.
